Lieutenant General Vernon Walters
Deputy Director
C.I.A.
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

I am very deeply grateful for the contribution you made to our seminar program. Your talk was outstanding. I am sure you could tell from the reaction of the audience how much they appreciated the insight you provided into the problems now facing the intelligence community.

I want to add a very sincere "good luck" on the speaking engagements you have planned for the future. The message you have to convey is one the American people need desperately to hear. I am convinced that if the talk you gave at our seminar could be aired on prime time television, the difficulties now faced by the C.I.A. would diminish rapidly.

I will be forwarding in the next day or so the tape recording of your talk as we promised.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

John M. Fisher
President
